INCENTIVE®

Helps You Manage Your Incentive Compensation

Too often, it's a struggle to define, calculate, and issue incentive compensation such as commissions, bonuses, and other performance-based pay. The permutations of sales reps, comp and bonus plans, territories, draws, bridges, and special performance metrics can create non-stop headaches for compensation managers and sales analysts struggling with fragile spreadsheets and cryptic formulas. The result: slow payments, difficult adjustments, incorrect commission splits, and inaccurate commission processing.

Fortunately, there's a better way: INCENTIVE, the comprehensive enterprise incentive management solution from Incentive Systems. INCENTIVE is an easy-to-use, flexible, yet sophisticated enterprise solution for designing, implementing, maintaining, and administering performance-based comp plans.

Combining the flexibility of spreadsheets with the audibility, reporting, and accessibility of a multi-user database engine, INCENTIVE helps you plan and manage all of your incentive-based compensation plans: sales commissions, MBO plans, quarterly and annual performance bonuses and more. With INCENTIVE, you can implement creative comp plans tied to performance metrics such as prior-year growth, market share, net margin, customer satisfaction, or other goals. That means your comp plan better reflects your company goals.

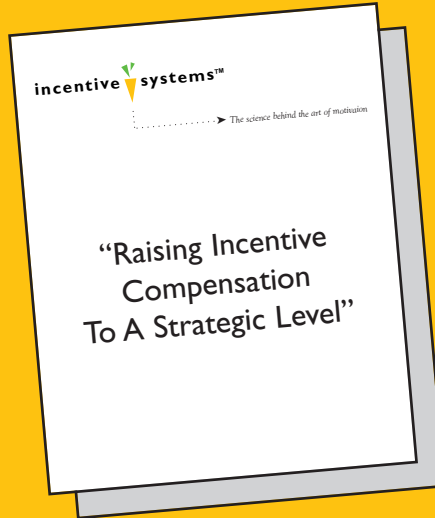

The Only Incentive-Pay Solution To Combine Ultimate Flexibility and Accuracy With High Productivity

Define multiple incentive plans with unlimited plan features for different roles in your company. Simple enough for finance professionals to build plans with robust formula language and point-and-click formula builder. Sophisticated enough to handle all of the cumbersome comp tasks: splits, different credits, management roll-ups, all types of adjustments, chargebacks/clawbacks, team selling, international currencies, and more.

INCENTIVE elevates incentive compensation from a dreary tactical task to a strategic component of your business plan. Now, you can fine-tune your comp plans at a granular level to ensure your company moves in the right strategic direction — and with the assurance that your incentive payments will be fast and accurate.
